

Ecclesiastical Declarations - Travel and Conveyance Protections

1. Declaration of the Right to Travel

I, a living soul and sovereign under divine law, declare my natural right to travel freely by foot, land, air, or sea.

This right shall not be converted into a privilege by any civil authority or state agency.

Travel under the trust is protected as a private spiritual act and not subject to regulation.

2. Affidavit of Non-Participation in Commercial Transportation Systems

Any conveyance in my possession or under my control operates in the private domain under ecclesiastical trust.

I am not engaged in commerce, transport-for-hire, or activity requiring licensure or state permission.

This affidavit rebukes presumptions of commercial use of trust conveyances.

3. Writ of Ecclesiastical Conveyance Registration

All conveyances operated under this trust are hereby recognized as sacred property and not subject to foreign registration systems.

No license plates, titles, or commercial identifiers are lawfully required for ecclesiastical conveyances.

Any interference with or seizure of said conveyance is a trespass against divine jurisdiction and this trust.

4. Rebuttal of Statutory Travel Mandates

I do not consent to any statute, ordinance, or mandate which infringes upon my right to move freely under divine law.

Such mandates are rejected as unlawful impositions and carry no authority over this trust or its beneficiaries.

All travel shall remain private, peaceful, and protected.

Sealed by authority of the Ecclesiastical Private Trust.
